

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 21

Thursday, February 13, 2020

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 1:30 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by House Chaplain Tim Perrier, upon invitation of the Speaker:

Father, thank You for this new day, a unique day unlike any other. A day to give, to serve, to celebrate, to mourn, to struggle, and a day to remember Your goodness in our lives. Today we thank You for our differences, thank You that You brought together the men and women in this Chamber with 120 different backgrounds, 120 different upbringings, 120 different gifts and passions. Our state needs each one of these leaders who You have appointed, and we're very grateful for every one of them.

For the good of the people of Florida and for the good of this process, we ask You to teach us to value unity over uniformity. Lack of uniformity in this Chamber is not necessarily a bad thing. It can be a strength, as each of us share the unique perspective and unique gifts that You have given us. What we do not want is a lack of unity.

We're very grateful for the love, respect, and support this body has shown to one another. And I pray that the spirit of unity continues, as You give us the eyes to see the value and contribution that those around us are making.

Finally, we lift up our continual prayer for safety and protection for the members, the staff, and families who are away from loved ones. I offer this prayer in Your name. Amen.

Moment of Silence

At the request of Rep. Daley, the House observed a moment of silence in memory of the families and victims of the shooting February 14, 2018, at the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland.

Reports of the Public Integrity & Ethics Committee

Report on Investigation

February 13, 2020

Dear Mr. Speaker,

On January 27, 2020, you directed the Public Integrity & Ethics Committee ("the Committee") to investigate whether the statutory standing of the Florida Coalition Against Domestic Violence ("the Coalition") "as a sole source contractor in our domestic violence programming has been a successful approach to providing the services we all want to make available to victims of domestic violence." Specifically, you authorized the Committee to investigate "any matter relevant to the integrity, effectiveness and efficiency of the state's contract with the Coalition," "including all aspects of the internal management of the Coalition" and its "administration of public dollars."

Consistent with that directive and authorization, the Committee herewith submits the following report regarding the commencement of its investigation into the Coalition.

As noted in your January 27 letter, the Florida Coalition Against Domestic Violence (the "Coalition") is a single-source state contractor, established by statute, which annually receives millions of dollars in public funding from the Department of Children and Families ("the Department") and other public sources and is responsible for distributing such funding to 42 domestic violence centers throughout the State. Concerns regarding the integrity, efficiency, and effectiveness of that arrangement date back to at least May 2012, when media outlets reported that the Coalition CEO's compensation was in excess of $300,000 per year. In 2018, the CEO's annual compensation was reported to the IRS to be $761,560. At the same time, the media was reporting about poor conditions in domestic violence shelters.

At your request, the Committee has been monitoring communications between the Coalition and the Department arising out of a dispute over which records the Department is entitled to review in its oversight capacity as the agency providing state funds to the Coalition for disbursement to various domestic violence centers across the state. This dispute arose after numerous media reports questioned the appropriateness of the Coalition President/CEO's compensation package.

Despite at least four written requests for records made over the course of fifteen months by the Department, the Coalition still refuses to turn over records concerning executive compensation, administrative costs and whether taxpayer dollars are funding them. The Coalition claims its contract does not require such cooperation and therefore refuses to cooperate. The Coalition does not appear to publish recordings or minutes of its board meetings, so there are no other means for the Department to ascertain executive compensation, how compensation is determined, and whether the compensation is being funded with state dollars.

In addition, concerns have arisen concerning the composition of the Coalition's Board and its Committees. Media reports indicate that the board is comprised of current and former directors of domestic violence organizations, to which the Coalition provides (or has provided) funding. This appears to involve frequent and recurring conflicts of interest, but the Coalition refuses to share its records so that an evaluation of any potential conflicts may be undertaken.

The Coalition's lack of transparency with respect to these concerns has only enhanced any concerns regarding the Coalition's administration of public funds and has given rise to a more general concern about the integrity and efficacy of the State's statutory and contractual arrangement with the Coalition.

Pursuant to your directive and authorization, the Committee is proceeding with an official investigation of that statutory and contractual arrangement, including but not limited to how the Coalition is using and distributing public funds, how executive compensation is set, and whether any conflicts of interest exist.

On January 28, the Committee sent a letter to the Coalition requesting certain categories of documents pertinent to the Committee's investigation and seeking the production of those documents by February 12, 2020. In the letter, the Committee asked for a response by the close of business on January 29, 2020 stating whether the Coalition would comply, fully and voluntarily, with the records request. On January 29, the Committee received a written commitment to deliver the documents to the Committee by February 12.

The Committee received those records, consisting of 104,410 pages after the close of business on February 13. After an initial, very brief review of the records, committee staff discovered that the documents provided were redacted, despite a prior verbal conversation and written confirmation that the Committee would not agree to the Coalition redacting records the Committee is entitled to receive in an unredacted state. Consequently, the Committee believes it is necessary to compel production of the documents sought, and any additional pertinent documents that may be identified from the information received to date.

Moreover, given the concerns the Committee has regarding exorbitant compensation arrangements authorized by the Coalition, the testimony of Patricia Duarte, CFO, Sandra Barnett, COO, former CEO/President, Tiffany Carr and all Board members listed in state filings and IRS Form 990s during the past two years. An initial list of those board members is attached hereto. The Committee may identify other recent Coalition Board members whose testimony should be compelled as well.

Finally, the Committee notes that the Florida Coalition Against Domestic Violence Foundation, Inc. reported total assets of $1,476,252 for end of fiscal year 2019 in its January 2020 filing with the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. That report also indicates that Tiffany Carr, former Coalition CEO, remains its Director. Because the filing indicates that the Foundation's purpose is to make distributions to the Coalition, the Committee believes it is important to review its business records and recommends issuance of a subpoena duces tecum for those records.

Under Section 5, Article III of the Florida Constitution, the House, when in session, may compel the production of documents upon any matter under investigation before it and any of its committees and may directly punish any refusal to obey its lawful summons or to answer lawful questions. Therefore, the Committee requests the House to issue a subpoena ordering the Coalition to produce the unredacted documents sought by the Committee letter delivered January 28.

A quorum was present in person, and a majority of those present agreed to the above Report.

Thomas J. Leek, Chairman

Rep. Leek moved that the House accept the Public Integrity & Ethics Committee Report on its investigation into the Florida Coalition Against Domestic Violence, and issue subpoenas to the Florida Coalition Against Domestic Violence, a Florida 501(c)(3) corporation, compelling the production of documents requested by the Chair of the Public Integrity & Ethics Committee by letter dated January 27, 2020, a copy of which may be found in the Committee Meeting Packet of January 30, 2020., returnable by February 20, 2020, at 3 p.m.

Rep. Leek further moved that the House issue subpoenas for the testimony of the following individuals who are current or former officers and/or directors of the corporation, listed in such capacity with state agencies:

Tiffany Carr, Tallahassee, Florida
 Patricia Duarte, Tallahassee, Florida
 Sandra Barnett, Tallahassee, Florida
 Laurel Lynch, Bradenton, Florida
 Angela Diaz-Vidaillet, Miami, Florida
 Melody Keeth, Malabar, Florida
 Lorna Taylor, Tampa, Florida
 Donna Fagen, Lake City, Florida
 Shandra Riffey, Tallahassee, Florida
 Theresa Beachy, Gainesville, Florida
 Penny Morrill, Dade City, Florida
 Sherrie Schwab, Tallahassee, Florida
 Shandra Fernandez-Kvam, Tallahassee, Florida, and
 Kelly Sinn, Dade City, Florida

The above Public Integrity & Ethics Committee Report on Investigation was adopted and the subpoenas were ordered.
